

‘The God Who Speaks’:
A Year of the Word 2019–20

Twenty-first Sunday in Ordinary Time

Lord God, touch our minds and hearts today as we read alone, as we proclaim in the liturgy, as we share together and,
inspired anew, help us to become that Word for all who seek the way, the truth, and the life.

GOD SPEAKS THROUGH ME

So then, brothers and sisters, stand firm and hold fast to the traditions that you were taught by us, either by word of mouth or by our letter.

Now may our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and through grace gave us eternal comfort and good hope, comfort your hearts and strengthen them in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 2:15–17

Creator and Source of all, gradually, through your prophets, you opened our minds and hearts
to the immensity of the mystery of your creative mercy.

Word made Flesh, you came among us;
a Word that both speaks in our hearts and through the vastness of your cosmos.

V. Your word is our path and your truth is our light.

R. This day and every day.
